

健康生活功第二節 Healthy Living Gong Part II

Healthy Living Gong Part II is little bit more physical than the Healthy Living Gong Part I and it the concentration is more on co-ordination and fitness. Therefore, it is more dynamic than the Healthy Living Gong Part I. This is because when we want to be healthier, we need to be strong. Part I is for relaxation and calming the mind whereas Part II needs to be stronger than Part I. Otherwise our healthy will go down and we will be ill. It is just like preparing ourselves before the problems happen rather than dealing with the problems when they are there.

After I created the Healthy Living Gong Part I, I decided to create a complete set of exercises, to include Parts II and III. This was in following year 1996. In order to have good health, we need more challenges. With the Healthy Living Gong Parts I, II and III, the exercises are very good for health and help to really challenge and develop the body in many different ways.
